7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

BEST PRACTICE : 1 TITLE : PROFESSIONALISM THROUGH PRACTICAL LEARNING OBJECTIVES OF THE PRACTICE ? To develop professional abilities among students. ? To refine students by polishing their talents, skills and proficiency and further blending them with practical knowledge. ? To enhance the level of knowledge of the students specially in procedural laws i.e Civil Procedure Code, Criminal Procedure Code, Law of Evidence and Alternate Dispute Resolution. ? To stimulate among students the sense of service towards society. ? To expose students to the factual position in the areas involved in procedural laws i.e police lock-ups, prisons, courts and tribunals ? To promote institutional neighborhood and networking ? To create professionalism with social commitment

THE CONTEXT • Practical learning consists prison visits, court visits, master-classes, community service through legal awareness and legal aid. • Permissions are a condition precedent for all activities. It is a strenuous process as it includes numerous authorities. For prison visits permission are required from the Home Department and Inspector General of Prisons. For Court visits permissions from the Principal Session Judge in the Sessions Court and Chief Judicial Magistrate in the lower Courts are required. • The institution is bound by the norms of Bar Council of India as well as Goa University there is no autonomy to decide on the Practical aspect of subjects within the syllabus. • Programmes conducted under Community Service demand exposure of law to the society. It is challenging to accommodate problems of people from different sects of the society and cater to their needs within the allotted time.

THE PRACTICE ? Practical learning was introduced with the intent of encouraging and motivating students towards societal evolution. ? The College has undertaken numerous steps and has adopted prudent practices that make learning experience comprehensive and helps in building the character, confidence and perfection, which inculcates professionalism amongst the students. ? At the commencement of every academic year the Principal along with the faculty members formulates different committees/clubs, to prepare a planner of activities, which are finally incorporated in the academic calendar, in order to ensure that practical learning runs smoothly. ? The College has various Committees/Clubs like the Environmental Law Club, Human Rights Club, Consumer Law Club, Constitutional Law Club, Criminal Law Club, IPR Law Club, Labour Law Club, RTI Club, Medical Law Club, Literary Club, Library and Information Science Club, Sports Entertainment Law Club, Women Cell, Childs Right Club, Entrepreneur Club, NSS, Legal Aid Society. ? The Human Rights Club has shouldered the responsibility of creating awareness on Human Rights. They conducted a rally on the Human Rights Day in Margao where in the students shouted slogans and carried placards for a pictorial display of slogans. Various other Clubs have also conducted rallies on "Socio - Legal Issues" ? To encourage the commitment of students towards society the College organizes Jail visits every year.

Permissions have to be obtained from the Home Department and the Inspector General of Prison. A batch of 20 students are allowed at a time. The students get an opportunity to interact with the inmates and understand their problems.

The students envisage the importance of "Legal Aid." They also learn the pivotal role of subjects like the 'Law of Evidence' and the 'Criminal Procedure Code' in administration of justice in the society. ? The Criminal Law Club organizes interactive sessions with Senior advocates, Public Prosecutors to gain practical knowledge on the subject. ? The Legal Aid Committees have 21

Legal Aid Clinics, the students of these clinics are trained to cater to the needs of the community. The Legal Aid coordinators along with their students conduct various awareness programmes through street plays on various topics such as human rights, constitutional rights etc. They also conduct surveys on socio legal problems. They also strive to facilitate the backward classes of the society to avail facilities of the various available schemes like Griha adhaar, Ladli laxmi, Den Dayal Pension, Mamta Scheme etc. BEST PRACTICE : 2 ?

Title: "Legal awareness programmes through Higher Secondary Schools in Goa." ?

Objective: (100 words) ? To inculcate professionalism and civic responsibilities amongst young students that advocate societal commitment articulated through legal awareness programmes. ? To encourage students to explore legal regimes in addition to regular curriculum. ? To sensitize the students, their parents/guardians and other stakeholders associated with educational institutions who come from different strata of our society of their rights and duties, to generate social consciousness and encouraging them to voice their concerns on various socio-legal issues existing in our society. ?

To improve the quality and accessibility to the appropriate law enforcement agencies while achieving maximum cost-effectiveness and redeeming the confidence in the legal system. ? To strengthen community solidarity and supporting grassroot advocacy. ? To create a hub for the understanding of law and government and to participate creatively in its growth and improvement. ?

The Context: (150 words) Socio-legal issues, such as gender discrimination and other women related problems, caste system, communalism, poverty, unemployment, corruption, violation of various human rights, health, environment, child labour, etc. has caused a lot of chaos in the society. Most people in India are not aware of the basic rights conferred upon them by law or are rather confused about it. Therefore, creating legal awareness is the need of the hour to deal with these uncertain problems which are existing and rising in the society with every passing day. Basic knowledge of legal provisions and procedures coupled with professional skills to realize rights will empower people to demand justice, accountability and effective remedies from appropriate law enforcement agencies. Students are encouraged to generate legal knowledge and awareness through the medium of Higher Secondary Schools by organizing talks, skits, street-plays, debates, discussions, seminars and other related activities at regular intervals. These activities help uproot misconceptions about the legal system and its administration of justice and also creates a culture of self-learning and improvement in our students bringing about academic excellence in their performance. Keeping in mind the professional ethics our students strive to work for welfare of society where they act as torchbearers of justice. ? The Practice: (400 words) In lieu of the above and the permission granted to our institution by the Directorate of Higher Education, Porvorim, Goa various topics pertaining socio-legal issues which are prevalent in our society are chosen after which students are trained and prepared to conduct various activities such as presentations, skits, street plays, etc. using Higher Secondary Schools in Goa as a platform to reach out to the people. These activities are done under the instructions and supervision of the faculty and practicing advocates to ensure that the most updated and accurate information is given to the audience. With the permission from the respective HSSC schools we send a team of our law students on allotted date and time to the respective institutions, whereby they interact with the junior college students with respect to the given topic. This practice enables our students to be more receptive to what is taught in class and drives them to learn and research more, taking initiative enthusiastically about the concerned issues and learn better as they learn and spread the awareness. The above-mentioned activities are performed in the college premises and/or the surrounding area whereby people can actively participate and benefit from the educative sessions/activities. These activities enable the students to be more connected with the problems of the masses and to help them find solutions to the same thereby fulfilling their civic responsibilities to a great extent. These activities also present an opportunity to our students where they can put their academic knowledge and newly acquired skills into practice before they graduate.
