ABOUT VIDYA VIKAS MANDAL

The seeds of the Vidya Vikas Mandal (VVM) were sown in the year 1971 by visionaries with a strong sense of social commitment towards the noble cause of education. The founder members of the educational society felt a pulsating need to bring education to the doorsteps of the people of South Goa and cater to their educational needs. This noble step marked the birth of its first institution, the Shree Damodar College of Commerce and Economics in the year 1973.

The year 1979 set another milestone for the VVM which witnessed the birth of the Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, which was the second Institution under its umbrella. This thoughtful step proved to be a respite to law aspirants and bridged the yawning gap between the need and availability of higher education opportunities for students of South Goa and saved them of the hardships and expenses involved in commuting to the capital city in North Goa and across the country for pursuing their legal education. This was followed by the establishment of various other institutions, namely, Ramakrishna Madeva Salgoacar (R. M. S) Higher Secondary School offering Commerce and Vocational streams under the Goa Board of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education; the Vidya Vikas Academy, a school with Higher Secondary Section in the Science stream under the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE); the H.M.N. Gaunekar Institute of Management, Training and Research (IMTR) and the Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) Study Centre.

Message from the President Vidya Vikas Mandal

C.A. Sheela H. N. Gaunekar

As a founder member and the President of the Vidya Vikas Mandal, an educational society established in 1971 by young and enlightened professionals with a keen passion for the noble cause of education, I am proud and overwhelmed to witness its journey of profound growth from its humble inception to the magnitude it has achieved in the past more than four decades. Quality education has been the motto of this educational society and the various institutions under its banner constantly commit and endeavour themselves to fulfill and achieve this earnest goal. The various institutions under the umbrella of the VVM provide facilities from kindergarten to the level of Doctoral studies.

The Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law is one such professional Institution catering to the needs of law aspirants and is the only one of its kind, imparting Legal education in South Goa. Started in 1979, it has completed four glorious decades of imparting law education consequently giving to society learned and worthy citizens and professionals, many of whom have carved a niche for themselves as eminent Judges, lawyers, academicians, law consultants, officials of the bureaucracy and legal advisors to firms and companies etc. The names of the only two women judges in the Bombay High Court, namely, Justice, Smt. Anuja Prabhudessai and Justice, Smt. Nutan Sardessai, as also that of Shri. Atmaram Nadkarni, the Additional Solicitor General of India, are synonymous with the success stories of our institution. The motto of the Institution has been the guiding light in maintaining professionalism and carrying forward the institutional vision and mission of social commitment through legal education. Law institutions have an important role to play in shaping the law aspirants into ethical, committed, informed and learned legal professionals and this Institution has left no stone unturned. My heart fills with pride to mention that the Institution has expanded itself and offers not only undergraduate and post graduate Law programmes but also Doctoral Studies and in addition also diploma and certificate programmes, which provide the students ample scope and opportunities of knowledge enhancement.

I welcome the law students to this Institution of legal learning and wish them a meaningful and fulfilling journey.

Message from the Chairman Governing Council

Shri. Nitin A. Kunkolienker

My hearty greetings to the aspirants and students of Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law. As you take a leap into this fresh academic year, I welcome you all into the portals of this centre of legal learning. The success of an Institution is deeply rooted in its ability to keep pace with the rapidly changing expectations of time and academic needs and Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, established in the year 1979, has evolved to cater to this growing demand. Its expansion in the avenues of legal education amply speak for itself. In addition to offering under-graduate and post-graduate programmes and Research Centre for Doctoral studies, the Institution offers diploma and certificate programmes to the general public also.

This Institution has a passionate focus on value-based education that instills social responsibility and professional ethics amongst students, as also the application based methodology and training imparted to them in the skills of advocacy, negotiation, research etc. through moot court competitions, negotiation competitions, student seminar and paper presentations, gears and equips them to face the growing and diverse challenges of the profession. This helps refine and polish their academic and professional skills and enables them to effectively manage the needs and demands of the profession.

To attain the noble vision and mission of the College, the Institution maintains inclusive learning-teaching environment through intensive and effective teaching learning methods, technological support, skill-based training, infrastructural enhancement and individual attention, whenever required. Importantly, the academic results in recent years reflect the focussed endeavour of a committed Institution and its faculty.

While touching new highs of excellence in Legal Education, the Institution never fails to continue its efforts to retain, sustain and expand on its social responsibility and commitments in order to make the facilities and infrastructure available to all irrespective of traditional bias and barriers.

The Institution is empathetic towards the under privileged, particular girl students and rural masses as also first generation learners and accordingly ensures them equality of opportunities as well as an inclusive environment.

I take great pride in the fact that over the four decades of the existence of the College, we have transcended various obstacles to evolve into an Institution of national repute. The Institution has also made its presence globally through cooperation agreements signed with foreign institutions. Its alumni occupy position of pride across the country and even beyond.

I am really happy to say that the team at the Law College is headed by an eminent academician, Dr. Saba V. M. Da Silva, who leads from the front and will leave no stone unturned to provide the best of legal education to the learners. I congratulate him on being appointed as the Dean, Faculty of Law of the Goa University. I wish G. R. Kare College of Law great strides of success to march and reach even greater heights of excellence.

Message from the Principal's Desk

Dr. Saba V. M. Da Silva

Welcome to the portals of Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law – a premier Institution imparting Legal Education in South Goa. This centre of legal academics offers a five-year integrated B.A.LL.B. double degree and a three-year LL.B. Degree programme, carried out in accordance with the Legal Education Rules of the Bar Council of India. In addition, two-year LL.M. Degree programme and the Ph.D. programme are also offered. The College is a significant component of the Goa University, being its affiliated College.

The College provides opportunities to enroll in Certificate Programmes, viz. Portuguese Language with Legal Inputs, Comparative Studies in Indo-European Laws, which is jointly offered by the University of Lisbon, Portugal and our Institution under MoU, and other such programmes customized to meet the needs of the students. The College has entered into several other MoUs with bodies/institutional, including foreign Universities. The University of Minho and the University of Coimbra, both in Portugal, the University of Fortaleza in Brazil and the British College of Applied Studies in Sri Lanka are some examples. The College joins an elite group of institutions from the Lusophone world by signing the protocol of the Lusophone Law Research Network, along with University of Minho (Portugal), University of Fortaleza (Brazil), Eduardo Mondlane University (Mocambique), University of the Itajai valley (Brazil), Institute of Higher Police and Criminal Sciences (Angola) and the Institute of Higher Juridical and Social Sciences (Cabo Verde). These associations facilitate academic growth of the faculty and create huge opportunities for the students, in terms of knowledge and cultural exchange.

I am happy to state that the College has been consistently setting benchmarks in the areas of teaching-learning, legal research and discipline and taking giant strides to be mapped at the State and National Level and become a leader in Legal Education. It has always been the endeavour of the College to provide quality legal education by inviting resource persons and arranging guest lectures and making life on campus a fulfilling and rewarding experience. Curricular learning is also facilitated through the best of infrastructure using smart classrooms, state-of-the-art moot court hall as also a well-equipped library with a large volume of reference books, legal search engines, databases and other e-resources, which have been made available to all students of the College.

Organizing activities like debates, quiz, in-house seminars, moot court competitions and training students in client counseling, mock trials, negotiation, mediation and such other are a routine co-curricular platform at the College. For these, the faculty members take efforts to provide students with sufficient practical exposure, including through legal aid and facilitates students to hone their skills and supplement curricular aspects.

The College also provides both indoor and outdoor sports and other recreational facilities and the students have manifested a fine blend of brain and brawn by excelling in Sports as also setting records at such events

The success story of the College is not complete without recognizing the several alumni of the College – our brand ambassadors, who have excelled in academics and won several gold medals at examinations, over the years and have reached far and wide keeping the flame of G. R. Kare Law College burning, whether they be Judicial officers, including Hon'ble Judges of the High Court, members of the Bar, teachers, the bureaucracy and all other officers of the echelons of society, who have made us proud.
