

THE

CHRONICLE

A monthly e-newsletter of VVM's Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law

AWARDS

GRKCL Winners at-Politika 2025

10 January 2025

VVM's G R Kare College of Law, Margao Goa participated and were declared as the overall winners at POLITIKA- An Inter- Collegiate Political Science Event organised by the Department of Political Science of the DCT's Dhempe College of Arts & Science, Miramar Panaji Goa on 10th January 2025. Various competitions were organised such as Elocution, Poster making, Treasure hunt, Essay writing and Quiz. A total of 11 colleges participated in the event. The aim of the event was to enhance their knowledge and showcase talents in different events. The event also aimed to ensure best possible ways to prepare the students with various strands of new knowledge and to prioritize the students to overcome challenges in the eventual understanding and build enthusiasm and determine their perseverance in the toughest activities.

VVM's GR Kare College of Law, Margao Goa secured the first place at the competition and were declared as the overall winners of the competition.

The following students of GRKCL performed exceptionally well in different competitions.

Ashish Govind Kelkar (5th year BALLB) -Quiz

Vedant Pawar (5th year BALLB)- Quiz

Sidharth Shirodkar (2nd year BALLB) -Quiz

Liam Joseph Vas (2nd year BALLB) -Quiz

Lucrencia Gomes (2nd year BALLB)- Treasure hunt

Maria Gracias (2nd year BALLB)- Treasure hunt

Heetharth Shetty (2nd year BALLB)- Elocution

Anusha Prakash Gauns Dessai (3rd year BALLB)- Essay

Simran Tari (1st year BALLB)- Poster making

Nonita Leanne Aguiar (1st year BALLB)- Poster making

The students were accompanied by Ms. Gauri Rao, Assistant Professor in Political Science GRKCL.

The students team from VVM's G.R. Kare College of Law, Margao Goa were adjudged as the runners up at the Fr. C.Rodrigues, International Moot Court Competition, organised by Agnel School of Law, Vashi, Navi Mumbai on 11th January, 2025. Students of G R Kare College of Law Ms. Anitha Bandhi, Ms. Jitisha Patkar, Ms. Diya Vernekar and Mr. Francis Fernandes were the participants.

Ms. Anitha Bandhi won the best mooters award. The participants were presented with the Runners- up trophy, cash prize and individual trophies.

The Fiscal Phoenix event was organized by Dhempe College of Arts and Science, Miramar, Porvorim, Goa, on the 17th and 18th of January 2025, it witnessed remarkable participation from 12 colleges. GRKCL team consisted of 20 participants. There were a total of 15 competitions, our team secured prizes in 8 categories, showcasing their talent and dedication.

1) Photography Competition

Won 2nd place by Mr. Shrivardhan Chari (F.Y.B.A.LLB)

2) Reel competition

Won 3rd place by Miss Shruti Kolambkar & Miss Anushka Sillyketh (F.Y.B.A.LLB)

3) Fashion Show competition

Won 1st place

Riddhi Kerkar (F.Y.B.A.LLB)

Sharvani Naik (F.Y.B.A.LLB)

Shraval Shet (F.Y.B.A.LLB)

Sanchali Kunkolienkar(F.Y.B.A.LLB)

Anushka sillyketh(F.Y.B.A.LLB)

Anish Bhandodkar (T.Y.BALLB)

Shruti Kolambkar(F.Y.BALLB)

Akanksha Gaunkar (F.Y LLM)

4) Model Making competition won 3rd place by Miss Tanisha Dalal & Miss Privanda Arolkar (F.Y.BALLB)

5) Quiz competition won 2nd place by Mr. Harshvardhan Dessai (S.Y.BALLB) & Simran Tari (F.Y.BALLB).

6) Solo Role play competition won 2nd place by Miss. Nonita Aguiar (F.Y.B.A.LLB)

7) Debate competition won 2nd place by Mr. Liam Vas & Mr. Sidharth Shirodkar (SYBALLB)

8) Paper Presentation won 3rd place by Nonita Aguir & Simran Tari (FYBALLB)

The Niti Prashasak Students Club of Public Administration Programme, Manohar Parrikar School of Law, Governance and Public Policy organised Inter-collegiate event on the theme: 'Celebrating 75 years of Indian Constitution' on 27th January 2025. The same was held at Block G, Goa University, Taleigao. The event had 6 competitions namely, debate competition, postal stamp making, newspaper designing, reel-making, slogan writing and street play.

GRKCL team secured 1st place in debate competition, 2nd place in postal stamp making, 2nd place in reel-making, 2nd place in slogan writing and 1st place in Street play.

All these positions enabled the team to secure the 1st place in the overall competition.

Team from VVM's Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law had participated in all the above-mentioned competitions.

1. Debate competition

a. Sidharth Shirodkar (SY B.A. LL. B)

2. Newspaper Designing

a. Manaswi Morajkar (SY B.A. LL. B)

b. Nonita Aguiar (FY B.A. LL. B)

3. Postal Stamp Making

a. Simran Tari (FY B.A. LL. B)

b. Neha Chari (FY B.A. LL. B)

4. Reel Making Competition

a. Sanchali Kuncolienkar (FY B.A. LL. B)

5. Slogan writing competition

a. Padma Karmali (SY B.A. LL. B)

6. Street Play

a. Akansha Gaunker (1st Year LL.M)

b. Utkarsh Dessai (5th Year B.A. LL. B)

c. Anish Bhandodkar (TY B.A. LL. B)

d. Niketa Kolapte (TY B.A. LL. B)

e. Padma Karmali (SY B.A. LL. B)

f. Trushita Naik (SY B.A. LL. B)

g. Jagruti Samant (SY B.A. LL. B)

h. Diya Vernekar (SY B.A. LL.B)

i. Aastha Gawas (SY B.A. LL. B)

j. Priyash Naik (FY B.A. LL. B)

ACADEMIC

Rally on Human Trafficking Awareness

11 January 2025

NSS student volunteers of VVM's G R Kare College of Law, Margao Goa participated in a rally organised by Scan Goa in association with Goa Police Department to commemorate Human Trafficking Awareness Day on 11th January 2025 from 9.00 am to 11:30 am at Panaji Goa. 50 NSS student volunteers participated in the rally and 15 students of the institution performed skits to highlight the issues related to Human Trafficking. The program began at Police Headquarters at Panaji Goa with an inaugural ceremony and then rally began from the Police Headquarters and went on till Panaji Bus Stand. The Students of VVM's G R Kare College of Law performed skit at two places, first one near Immaculate Conception Church, Panaji and second at the Panaji KTCL Bus Stand. The NSS Volunteer's gave slogans against Human Trafficking and also distributed pamphlets showcasing the same. Faculty Members Mr. Harshad Bandodkar, Assistant Professor and NSS Programme Officer GRKCL, Ms. Sonia Shirodkar, Assistant Professor and Mr. Sapresh Devidas, Assistant Professor accompanied the students.

The Criminal Law Club of G.R. Kare College of Law, Margao, conducted a visit to the Central Jail, Colvale, on the 6th, 8th, 9th and 11th of January 2025. The visit was organized so that the students gain practical exposure to the operations of the correctional system and the legal processes involved in confinement and the rehabilitation of the offenders, additionally, the students were provided real-world insights into criminal law.

The students of the Third Year LL.B. Degree Programme and the Fourth Year B.A.LL.B. Programme visited the Central Jail, Colvale, on seeking the permission for the same from the Inspector General of Prison, Panjim. The visit was divided in 4 batches of students comprising of 103 students, they were accompanied by 6 faculty members.

On the 6th of January 2025, 28 students of the Third Year LL.B. Degree were scheduled for the visit. The students were accompanied by Ms. Ruby Z. Luis, Asst. Professor GRKCL and incharge of the Criminal Law Club and Ms. Afshan Bi, Asst. Professor GRKCL.

The second visit was conducted on the 8th of January, 2025, 25 students of the Third Year L.L.B Degree were accompanied by Ms. Ruby Z. Luis, Asst. Professor GRKCL and incharge of the Criminal Law Club and Ms. Yamini J. Dalvi, Asst. Professor GRKCL.

The third visit was conducted on the 9th January, 2025 where 24 students of the Fourth year B.A.LL.B. were accompanied by Ms. Afshan Bi, Asst. Professor GRKCL and Ms. Aditi Narvekar, Asst. Professor GRKCL.

The fourth visit was on the 11th of January, 2025 comprising of 23 students they were accompanied by Mr. Harshad Bandodkar, Asst. Professor GRKCL and Ms. Afshan Bi, Asst. Professor GRKCL.

On each of the days, upon completion of all formalities, the students were taken to the jail premises by Mr. Paresh Gauns Dessai, Asst. Jailor and Mr. Lotlikar, Asst. Jailor, to have an insight of the Prison Premises. The students were given the privilege to visit all the blocks in which the inmates were present. The visit included the hospital housed within the jail, legal aid center, library which comprised of various books pertaining to literature, history and science, IGNOU study center, recreation room, music room, kitchen block, workshop or factory block which consisted of carpentry, tailoring, candle making, paper bag making, idol making etc., solitary confinement block, block for under-trials, block for NDPS-under trials and a separate block for women convicts.

All the blocks were well maintained. A separate block is created for the purpose of video conferencing, the students were lucky to have witnessed the process of recording evidence of various inmates.

During all the visit the students experienced the influence of reformatory form of punishment.

The Prison Authorities took up all the queries raised by the students. The visit was very informative and the students learned a lot about prison administration.

The Nyaya Yatra-Journey to Justice, is an innovative concept started by G.R.Kare College of Law, Margao, in collaboration with the South Goa District Legal Services Authority and Konkan Railway Corporation. The Nyaya Yatra was launched at the Konkan Railway Station, Margao, on Friday, the 17th of January, 2025 at 9.30 am. Adv. Sangram Desai, Chairman, Bar Council of Maharashtra and Goa, Adv. Pravin Faldessai Deputy Solicitor General of India, Ms. Sarika Faldessai, Judicial Officer and Secretary of the District Legal Services Authority graced the occasion with their presence. The legal aid volunteers of G. R. Kare College of Law presented a skit at the entrance of the Margao railway station highlighting the duties and rights of the citizens traveling in trains. It was followed by the invocation song and lighting of the lamp. It is our duty to ensure that person from the last strata of life should get justice, said Adv. Sangram Desai, Chairman, Bar Council of Maharashtra and Goa, after launching the Nyaya Yatra.

Further on he said that citizens should be conscience about performing their constitutional duties and he opined that if everyone performs their duties, we need not emphasize on rights. He said that the Bar Council of Maharashtra and Goa was eager to be part of any legal awareness campaign and called upon the law students to get associated with the Bar Council in creating a legally informed society.

Adv. Pravin Faldessai congratulated G. R. Kare College of Law for its innovative concept to spread legal knowledge and complimented the law students for their efforts. Mr. Nitin Kunkolienkar welcomed the gathering and reiterated the commitment of the law college to spread legal knowledge.

Dr. Maria Goretti Simoes, Officiating Principal, explained the purpose and object of the Nyaya-Yatra. She explained how it would help the common man to avail his rights. She further committed that G.R. Kare College of Law would always be available to help the common man.

Ms. Sarika Faldessai, Judicial Officer and Secretary of the District Legal Services Authority, said that there was a permanent panel of lawyers appointed by the District Legal Services to offer free legal advice to the citizens and such panel operates from the District Court Building at Margao. She said that the needy citizens should avail the services of such panel.

The South Goa District Legal Services Authority and the G. R. Kare College of Law, had organized a digital poster making competition on the theme "Free Legal Aid and Rights of Women and Children". The first six posters were displayed at the Margao Railway Station. A police team led by Deputy Superintendent Police and SDPO Margao, Mr. Sidhanth Shirodkar, created legal awareness on Cyber Crimes and warned the citizens on the attempts made by cyber criminals to cheat people by devising innovative ways.

Ms. Ruby Luis Assistant Professor in Law GRKCL, delivered the vote of thanks.

National Seminar on "Fundamental Rights in a Changing world:
Adapting to Contemporary Challenges"

18 January 2025.

V.V.M's G. R. College of Law celebrated 75 years of the Constitution of India. The chief guest for inaugural ceremony was Honble Shri Pravin Faldessai, Deputy Solicitor General of India. 23 presenters including faculty and students from various law schools and universities around India presented their papers at three technical sessions at the seminar.

The moderators for the technical session were Dr. Rahul Tripathi, Professor in Political science, Goa University, Dr. Yashomati Ghosh, Professor of Law IIULER& Vandana Pawar, Assistant Professor, Modern Law College , Pune.

valedictory sessions was graced by Dr. Ananya Bibave, Principal Modern Law school, Pune Guest of Honour was Dr. Rahul Tripathi.

The event was coordinated by Dr. Shruti Nadkarni, Assistant professor & HoD G.R.Kare College of Law Margao

VVM's G.R.Kare College of Law, Margao organized a session under Vidnyan Dhara series 2025 which was conducted on 20th January 2025. The resource person for the session was Dr. Ramesh Chatragadda, Senior Scientist, CSIR-National Institute of Oceanography, Donapula , Goa.

Dr. Ramesh delivered lecture on the topic "Exploration of Ocean's Gifts to Human Well-being". During his lecture he delved into the profound impact oceans have on the planet and overall health and prosperity of humanity. He offered a comprehensive look into how oceans contribute to the well-being of people around the world, touching on ecological, economic, and health-related aspects. He discussed the ecological importance of ocean and stressed upon the need for healthy oceans for mitigating effects of climate change. The lecture explored the diverse resources oceans provide, including food supply, medicinal benefits and economic benefits.

The resource person highlighted the significance of certain marine organisms such as corals, coral reefs, crustaceans etc. and explained their unique qualities which can be tapped by human beings for their well being. He also focused on link between ocean health and human health. He informed that Oceans are under threat due to plastic waste, chemicals, and overfishing. These pose direct harm to marine organisms and eventually to human health. He urged the students to study law of sea and laws related to the marine life and biodiversity so as to make a difference in the field of oceans and protection of marine biodiversity. He successfully answered the questions posed by the students. The session was coordinated by Dr, Shruti Nadkarni, Assistant Professor & HoD and Institue Co-ordinator for Vidnyan Dhara Series.

The VVM Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, in association with the Directorate of Higher Education (DHE), organized the Youth Constituent Assembly Dialogue for Change on the topic "Vision 2047". The event aimed to provide a opportunity for students to critically engage with the Indian Constitution and think about its role in shaping India's future.

The event commenced with the lighting of the lamp. The Principal of the college welcomed the guest and narrated the institution's journey. The Chief Guest for the event, Mr. Bhushan Savaikar, Director of DHE and an alumnus of the college, was introduced by Ms. Merville Rodrigues. Mr. Savaikar's illustrious career includes serving as Joint Secretary to the Chief Minister and as a Mamlatdar for over a decade. Mr. Sapresh Devidas, the coordinator of the event, shared the inspiration behind the initiative. Drawing from a statement by the Prime Minister emphasizing the importance of students understanding the Constitution, he conceptualized the theme "Drafting a Vision for 2047". He highlighted the four topics for the event: Rights, Government, Innovation, and Sustainable Development.

In his address, Mr. Bhushan Savaikar emphasized the importance of having in-depth knowledge of subjects and practical application of constitutional principles. Reflecting on his own academic journey, he urged students to adopt a comprehensive approach towards learning. He also stressed the need to prioritize the "happy index" and sustainable development for a better future.

Dr. Pradeep Sarmokadam, the second speaker, threw light on pre- and post-independence India and discussed the challenges of living by the Constitution . He encouraged students to critically analyse constitutional provisions and adapt them to modern-day challenges. He also emphasized the importance of biodiversity, environmental conservation, and sustainable practices, referencing Articles 48A and 51G of the Constitution.

The inaugural ceremony concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Yamini Dalvi.

Sessions by Experts

Session 1: By Dr. Pradeep Sarmokadam

Dr. Sarmokadam, an expert in environmental planning, spoke on the Biodiversity Act, 1992, and its relevance in addressing biodiversity loss and technological advancements. He emphasized the need for sustainable and equitable development and also mentioned of Goa's efforts in documenting flora and fauna. Highlighting the balance between economic development and sustainability, he stressed the importance of environmental conservation as a collective responsibility.

Session 2: By Dr. Venugopal Rao

Dr. Rao brought a global perspective with his impressive academic credentials. He discussed the implications of artificial intelligence, digital technology, and social media on constitutional amendments. He raised questions about the intersection of technology and rights, including concerns about privacy (Article 21) and the challenges posed by automation and humanoids in the job market. He emphasized the need for proactive measures to address these emerging issues.

Session 3: By Mr. Abhishek Mishra

Mr. Mishra's session focused on decolonization of the legal system. He traced the evolution of India's constitutional framework from colonial influences to its current form. Highlighting India's unique cultural and historical context, he encouraged students to draw inspiration from India's rich heritage while shaping the Constitution's future. His insights on the significance of Indian knowledge systems and their integration into contemporary legal frameworks resonated deeply with the audience.

This was followed by Student Presentations and Judging where students from various colleges presented their drafts on the Constitution, exploring themes such as:

1. Rights: Topics included digital privacy, environmental rights, gender equality, and human rights education.
2. Innovation in the Constitution: Addressed digitalization, the use of AI in governance, and technological advancements to reduce case backlogs.
3. Sustainable Development: Focused on conservation, economic sustainability, and renewable resources.
4. Privacy and Justice: Highlighted the importance of cybersecurity and balancing privacy with justice.

The presentations were evaluated by esteemed judges, Advocate Yatish Naik and Ms. Twiggy Fernandes, who commended the students for their critical insights and innovative approaches.

The Valedictory Ceremony marked the conclusion of the two-month-long program celebrating 75 years of the Constitution. The Chief Guest, Advocate Yatish Naik, emphasized the evolving nature of the Constitution and its relevance to human civilization. He emphasized the fundamental principle of the Constitution: "The welfare of all is the supreme law." While Sir Devidas acknowledged the efforts of all participants and announced the winners. Narayan Zantye College of Commerce were the winners, with Sant Sohirobanath Ambiyee Government College of Arts and Commerce as the runners-up. The event successfully promoted critical thinking and dialogue among students, inspiring them to envision a Constitution that upholds the values of equity, sustainability, and innovation for Vision 2047. The collaborative efforts of the college and DHE ensured a meaningful and impactful experience for all participants.

The VVMs G.R.Kare College of Law proudly organized a patriotic event to celebrate 150th year of Vande Mataram.. To commemorate this milestone, the National song was sung on the the 24th January 2025 at 10.00 am . The event aimed to instill a sense of national pride and unity among students and faculty members.

The program commenced with a brief address by the principal, emphasizing the historical significance of Vande Mataram in India's freedom struggle. This was followed by a heartfelt rendition of the song by NSS Volunteers, students and faculty, creating an atmosphere of patriotism and reverence. NSS faculty in charge Mr. Harshad Bhandodkar shared insights on the constitutional and legal aspects of Vande Mataram, highlighting the significance of its role in India's freedom struggle.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the efforts of NSS Unit and other participants. The event successfully reinforced the spirit of nationalism and was appreciated by all attendees. Overall, the celebration of Vande Mataram at the Law College was a memorable occasion, fostering respect for India's rich history and cultural identity.

Vidya Vikas Mandal's Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, Margoa- Goa, is proud to have hosted yet another successful edition of the Crisis Control International Competition, 2025 held on 24th and 25th January, 2025 in online mode. The entire competition was conducted on Google Meet platform. This unique two-day competition witnessed participation from all over the world. This competition provides students across the world to showcase their analytical and presentation skills.

Day 1

The Inaugural Ceremony:

The first day started off with the Inaugural Ceremony at 10 am where, Miss Mariam George, student of 2nd year B.A.LL.B. was the compere for the day, she aptly and skillfully navigated through all the events. The Officiating Principal, Dr. Maria Goretti Simoes, addressed the audience, both online and in-person, with a message that resonated across the diverse attendance.

Asst. Prof. Akanksha Gehlaut, Faculty Coordinator, provided a complete outline of the third edition of the event that housed Notable changes, and spoke about the growth and development of the event, highlighting their commitment to stray away from conventional methods and adopting and improving to online means as an attempt to enhance the experience of the participants all around the world.

Following which the Student Coordinator of CCIC Miss Sobi, introduced the Chief guest Dr. Mrudula Bele as she took over to delve into the complexity and technicality of INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS and ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE. The Chief Guest, renowned in her field, shared profound insights into the current landscape of Intellectual Property Rights in regards with AI, and spoke about 'Protection of the Rights of Human Creators'

The Inaugural ceremony ended with a vote of Thanks by Asst. Prof. Sapresh Devidas who expressed heartfelt gratitude towards the dignitaries, the participants and the attendees.

Orientation and Learning Session:

The event then transitioned to the second part, the Orientation Session, at 11:00 am, which was led by Assistant Professor, Akanksha Gehlaut. This critical segment aimed to provide participants with essential information, guidance, and a comprehensive overview of the event's structure and objectives. Participants were provided with necessary knowledge, and rules and regulations, they were informed about their respective positions in the competition through a draw of cards. The act of unveiling categories with drawn cards not only added an enjoyable aspect to the event it also fostered anticipation and encouraged teamwork among the participants.

Following the orientation session, the event transitioned to the learning session, which started at 11:30am, and was guided by Asst. Prof. Priyanka Parab. She introduced the Resource person Dr. Owais Shaikh. The learning session commenced with a unique experiment with AI systems that was proposed to the participants by the resource person, making the session extremely interactive and enjoyable for everyone. He spoke about the disadvantages of AI in regards to patent law, raised marvelous questions about rights of ownership of content created by Public AI domains and explained in great detail about how AI is trained. The Q&A session demonstrated their adeptness at addressing diverse queries with clarity and precision.

Day 2

The Competition:

The second day started with the the competition round with both "for" and "against" categories progressing simultaneously in sequence.

Dr. Oswais Shaikh and Mr. Anwesh Roy were the judges for the day who meticulously provided the participants with feedback and pointers for their future endeavors.

The Valedictory Ceremony :

After a while it proceeded with the valedictory session, which marked the near end of the event. Vice principal and HOD Dr. Shruti Nadkarni addressed and acknowledged everyone's hard work to put for the successful event yet again, following which a brief report of the 2 day event was read by Nadia Costa.

Asst. Prof Merville Rodrigues introduced the chief guest Dr. Sanath Sameera Wijesinghe, a professor in Legal Studies & Head of the Department of Legal Studies at the Open University of Sri Lanka, he greatly spoke about the main topic of the day and gave profound insight on the same. Asst. Prof. Parita Naik introduced Mr. Anwesh Roy, following which Asst. Prof. Akanksha Gehlaut ended the event with the vote thanks, highlighting and acknowledging the work of each and everyone, the event was concluded with the announcement of the winners of CCIC 2025 where the student coordinator Miss Sobi Sabu, played a video announcing the winners of the CCIC 2025. The winners of the competition won a prize amount of 40,000 INR in their respective categories. The prize money was sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association of the college.

VVMs G.R.Kare College of Law On January 26th 2025, hosted a grand celebration to mark India's 76th Republic Day. The event, commenced with the unfurling of the national flag by the officiating principal, Dr. Maria Goretti Simoes and the singing of the national anthem, filling the air with patriotism and unity.

The Guest of honor of the function was Shri Gervasio Mendes additional director Directorate of Higher Education.

The students, staff, and faculty members of the three sister institutions gathered in the college grounds, where the principal addressed the assembly. In her speech, Dr. Maria Goretti Simoes highlighted the importance of Republic Day in commemorating the adoption of India's Constitution and emphasized the values of democracy, equality, and justice that the day stands for.

Following the speech, a series of cultural programs ensued. These included a captivating patriotic song performance; a heartfelt rendition of national songs by the choir club.

The highlight of the day was enactment of the constituent assembly debate showcasing the discussion & deliberation during the enactment of the Constitution. The celebrations concluded with the Preamble being read by all followed by group photograph of dignitaries and the faculty members.

The Republic Day celebrations at GR Kare College of Law successfully fostered a sense of national pride and unity among the students and faculty, providing a reminder of the values that shape the nation's democratic fabric.

Awareness Session on Road Safety

29 January 2025

in commemoration of road safety month January 2025

VVMs G.R.Kare College of Law conducted a road safety awareness session on 29th January 2025 in the Ganesh Daivajna Auditorium to educate students about traffic rules, legal provisions, and the importance of responsible driving.

The session was organized in collaboration with Director of Transport, Margao, South Goa as part of the college's commitment to social responsibility.

The event featured authorities and expert speakers, including Assistant Director Motor Vehicles, Margao-South Goa, Mr. Edwin DeSouza Luisito and Assistant Motor Vehicle Inspector Mr. Jitendra R Gaonkar and traffic police officers, who highlighted key aspects of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, penalties for violations, and recent amendments in traffic laws. They also discussed legal implications of rash driving, drunk driving, and pedestrian safety.

Many short video clippings and images were used by the authorities highlighting the importance of observing the road safety rules.

A special interactive session allowed students to engage in discussions on road safety policies, legal reforms, and their role in spreading awareness. The session concluded with a pledge to follow traffic rules and promote responsible behavior on the roads.

Asst. Professor GRKCL Ms. Yamini J Dalvi proposed the vote of thanks. The initiative was well received, reinforcing the importance of legal education in ensuring safer roads and responsible citizenship.

The VVM's Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, Margao-Goa hosted its mega Literary, Cultural and Sports Talent Competition, Pratibha 2025 - "A Verdict on Excellence" on a unique theme 'Mystical Mania'. Pratibha 25' included Competitions such as Quiz, Skit, Debate, Photography, Sigil Making, Reel Making, Dance, Duet Singing, Treasure Hunt, Fashion Show, Strong Man & Woman and Table Tennis.

The Competition was organized by the Students' Council & Cultural Committee along with Literary Society and Department of Physical Education and Sports in association with the Department of Tourism, Goa. The inaugural ceremony was held at the hands of the Chief Guest, Shri. Salil B Naik, acclaimed Multi Lingual Actor in the presence of Dr. Goretti Simoes, Officiating Principal, Ms. Rozena Corriea, Assistant Professor and Faculty Coordinator and Mst. Lleyton Colaco, General Secretary and Mst.Vrushank Goankar, Cultural Secretary, Students' Council and Cultural Committee.

Smt. Parvatibai Chowgule College of Arts and Science were adjudged the Winners of Pratibha-2025 and were awarded a trophy and a cash prize of 25,000/- and Shree Damodar College of Commerce and Economics were declared Runners Up of Pratibha-2025 and won a cash prize of 15,000/-. The program ended with socials with Emcee Mr. Gaurav Padte (GPA) headlined by Explicit Vibes & DJ Umar.

Dear Readers,

V.V.M'S Govind Ramnath Kare College of Law, Margao -Goa aims at achieving excellence always in legal education, with a plethora of activities aimed towards this. The college strives to achieve perfection in this field by exposing its students to a galaxy of novice competitions and creative actions.

The students as also the faculty who are the back bone of the institution have flourished and nurtured this dream of our founding fathers through an array of educational opportunities where we, at GRKCL believes that EVERYONE HERE IS A WINNER IN HIMSELF. Keeping the motto of the college alive, this e-newsletter seeks to project the hardwork, dedication, performance, and sincerity in taking the institution scale greater heights.

Ms. Priyanka Parab
&
Ms. Shrini Fal Dessai
Chief Editors

Mr. Akshay Chari
Graphics Designer

Dr. Maria Goretti Simoes
Officiating Principal

