Kindly offer your valuable comments on the curriculum in the space given below

I'm satisfied with the way the college exposes the students and gives them hands on experience.

Good

The practical course has to be revised. More emphasis goan family law and also on research Publications from the very beginning.

Besides the academics, the students should be taught to adhere to the dress code and decorum and to follow the etiquettes of appearing and making submissions before the Court.

Curriculum - Goan laws relating to inheritance if possible, should be taken up as an independent subject by itself.

I'm satisfied with the way the college exposes the students and gives them hands on experience.

Should give more stress on practical

I recently did Portuguese learning course with sir Bosco. But I feel it should be minimum of 1 year. N this is short period it's difficult to learn as it's totally a new subject. Portuguese learning should be made as a optional subject as our major documents in Goa are in Portuguese.

REPORT ON FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM BY EMPLOYER

As regards employers' opinions on the relevance of the courses within the curriculum of the various programs, a substantial majority perceive them as highly beneficial, significantly aiding students in their legal practice, particularly in terms of their oral advocacy and drafting capabilities. Furthermore, they express the view that the communication skills and research acumen of the students are commendable. They have remarked that the syllabus has undergone considerable enhancement, thereby affording balanced emphasis on the practical components. They have also advocated for the incorporation of additional courses into the curriculum. Moreover, they noted that the syllabus aligns well with the National Education Policy.
